ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

It is feared that former United States Marshal E. S. Harris, of Bennington, will lose the sight of one eye that has caused him much pain for several weeks.

The Rev. V. M. Hardy recently resigned his pastorate at Foxcroft, Me., to take effect February 1, and with Mrs. Hardy expects to return to Morrisville and occupy his home there.

Charles L. Beard of Brookfield met with an accident recently by falling over a log in moving it and striking upon another one, so that he cracked three ribs and was unable to attend to his usual work, but is now out again.

The Rutland police are on the lookout for persons who are continually violating the city ordinances by tacking signs on telegraph poles and in similar conspicuous places. Some of the offenders do the work under cover of darkness.

Alvah J. Little has been awarded the mail route from Chelsea to South Royalton and also the one from here to Thetford Depot for the four years beginning July 1. Frank E. Bixby, the present driver, has proved the successful bidder on the route from Chelsea village to Barre city.

Frank King, a hard working young man and at present road commissioner of Benson, was seriously hurt recently by a load of logs, on which he was riding in the woods, falling on him. His companion pried the logs off and released him. He was hit on the head and is suffering from concussion of the brain. His condition is regarded as serious.

It is rumored that the New York Central railroad, which now owns the Rutland system, will make some pronounced and expensive changes in Bellows Falls. It is stated the railroad has purchased the meadow land north of the James Albee farm and will lay out thereon a large railroad yard and that the volume of traffic now passing over the road will be greatly increased.

Mrs. Sarah Beckwith died at the home of Samuel Beckwith in Chelsea Feb. 4, aged 77 years. She had been in feeble health for some time. The funeral was Monday from the house and the burial was in Vershire beside her late husband, George Beckwith. She left one son, George Beckwith, who was not present, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Harry Moody, of Williamstown.

For several years there has been in force at the University of Vermont a set of rules regulating the attendance of students at their various lectures and recitations. While the rules have worked well, on the whole, the faculty have decided to leave the matter of attendance more to the honor of the students, to be put in force, provisionally at the opening of the second half year.

D. J. D. Hanrahan, of Rutland, has received a telegram saying that his thirteen-year-old son, John P. Hanrahan, who left St. Lawrence College at Montreal about 8 o'clock Saturday night in company with a New York lad, and who was reported to be going to New York, was found Tuesday in Montreal, and taken back to the college. The message was very brief, and did not mention the New York boy, nor whether young Hanrahan had intended to run away or not.

The Columbia Marble Quarrying Co. of Rutland is very busy filling several contracts which were recently obtained. Among the largest is a $40,000 order for marble for the Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, Ky. The concern has an $8,000 contract to furnish material for the interior marble work for a new railroad station at Bridgeport, Conn. The government has recently awarded the Columbia company contracts for marble for five buildings situated in different parts of the United States.

Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taplin, aged 15, of Corinth, died at noon Saturday, Feb. 4th, of appendicitis. He was taken sick on Saturday of the week before with what the doctor called peritonitis. On Friday he grew worse very fast and Dr. Gile of Hanover came and performed an operation Saturday morning at 4 o'clock, but he was past help. It was a great shock to the family and the whole community. He left parents, four sisters and one brother. Funeral at his home Monday afternoon.

According to the statement of the grand juror in Burlington city court Thursday, Frank Pratt has been spending his time fishing instead of working for the support of his family. The pauper department was called upon to aid the family and Pratt was arrested. When arraigned on a charge of non-support Pratt announced that he had been unable to get work but that he was willing to support his family and that he would seek a position at once. Grand Juror Webster thought it would be well to give Pratt an opportunity to work if he would and the case was continued a month.

Some time ago a petition was circulated and signed by most of the business men of Randolph, asking the railroad commission to direct the Central Vermont Railway Co. to station a flagman at the railroad crossing south of the depot as a protection to teams and pedestrians, especially children on their way to and from school. The railroad company, learning of the move, made a counter proposition, asking the petitioners to allow the company to install electric bells at the South Main and South Pleasant street crossings on trial, instead of placing the flagman, who could only be at one crossing. This was acceptable to the petitioners, who have asked the railroad commissioners, in view of this offer, not to consider their former request for the present. The bell system will be installed as soon as the ground will permit. The bells will ring automatically on the approach of trains within a certain dis-

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasite germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ. Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ance, also while the crossings are covered by them.

Greensboro Hotel Man Popular.

F. H. Dufur, proprietor of the Caspian Lake house, Greensboro, has recently been making improvements on the inside of the hotel, laying hard wood floors in the dining room and halls, and newly finishing the walls. Monday evening, February 6, about thirty-five persons pleasantly surprised him by walking in upon him, headed by the village drum corps. Mr. Dufur was presented a new front door for the house; it has solid brass trimmings and a large glass panel inscribed, "Caspian Lake House."

Mr. Hall made the presentation speech in behalf of the citizens who wished to show their appreciation of a good hotel and help along the appearance of the house, which Mr. Dufur has been in town. Mr. Dufur responded, thanking the people for their good will, and inviting the party to enjoy the hospitality of the house.

CURRENT COMMENT.

What the Press of the State and Country is Talking About.

Maine has followed the lead of Vermont and repealed the bounty on hedgehogs. This is a public protection of private interests that costs too much. New Hampshire is still wrestling with the problem.—Montpelier Argus.

Governor Bell's reprieve of Mrs. Rogers certainly has been well sustained by the approving comment, not only of the state press, but of the better representatives of the metropolitan press as well.—St. Albans Messenger.

A correspondent of one of the yellow journals sent to Vermont to cover the Rogers case so far outdistanced his rivals in mendacity, as to be in a class by himself. He faked interviews with all the prominent officials, including Gov. Bell, reporting things said by them that were never even thought of by them. After he had atrociously lied day after day about the governor, reporting among other things that it was the governor's intention to witness the hanging, he one day approached Bell and wanted to discuss the question of reprieve. "I have nothing to say to you, sir," said Bell, "except this: that after we get through with Mrs. Rogers we are going to leave the gallows up for you!" Oddly enough, this scoop interview with Bell didn't appear in Hearst's Boston American—perhaps because it was genuine.—Randolph Herald and News.

Feared the Worst.

Friday Vizer, a familiar negro about town in a certain part of Mississippi, had been found dead, and he being a member of no church or lodge—very unusual for a negro—there was no one to pray for his soul in the great beyond. A few old intimates, however, carried the body to the cemetery in a rude pine coffin, and Bob McRaven, one of the number, an old "befo-de-wah darkey," was called upon for a few remarks. Bob removed his hat and stepped reverently and sadly toward the open grave, and in solemn, funeral tones said:

"Friday Vizer, you is gone. We hopes you is gone where we expects you ain't!"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Grave Trouble Unforeseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that, when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as did Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store, Barre, Vt., at 50c per bottle.

Feed It to Their Fowls

C. Hyman & Sons, prominent millers at Stuykerville, N. Y., tell of their experience with Poultry Food. Their letter will be of interest to poultrymen. Here it is: "We have sold 'Poultry Perfect' Poultry Food' a number of seasons and it gives good satisfaction and our sales are increasing each year. We have used it for our own fowls and know it is a good article."

PAPER BY BARRE WOMAN.

Mrs. Etta LePage Discussed "Small Fruits for Home Use and for the Market."

Vergennes, Feb. 11.—The morning session of the Vermont State Horticultural Society's meeting, was opened yesterday morning with a paper on "Market Gardening" by L. H. Sheldon of Fair Haven. The speaker urged upon farmers the importance of advertising their garden products in the newspapers. "The Growing of Plants and Cut Flowers," was discussed in an interesting manner by G. E. Hunt of Rutland. The Rev. George W. Perry of Chester, spoke on "Sunshine" and its great value to crops, the topic being handled in an able manner. Much information was contained in a paper by Mrs. Etta W. LePage of Barre, on "Small Fruits for Home Use and for the Market." One of the best features of the meeting was an address by Prof. F. A. Waugh of the Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst, Mass., but formerly of the University of Vermont. Professor Waugh spoke on horticulture in general. Norman E. Jack of Chateaugay Basin, Que., who was to have spoken on "Asparagus Culture," was unable to be present.

In the afternoon George H. Terrill of Morrisville, president of the society, gave his annual address. The meeting closed with an address by W. T. Macoun of Ottawa, Ont.

Officers were elected as follows: President, E. S. Brigham of St. Albans; secretary, William Stuart of Burlington; treasurer, T. L. Kinney of South Hero.

SNOW VERY DEEP IN WOODS.

Stage Drivers in Vicinity of Chester Experience Difficulty.

Chester, Feb. 11.—The snow is from two and a half to three feet deep in the woods and the wood choppers are finding much difficulty in doing their work, some of whom have given up their jobs until the snow settles. The teamsters are also handicapped, and in some places are unable to get to their wood and log piles since the recent storm.

In making the return trip to Weston last Tuesday afternoon the stage driver had to put up at a farm house for the night, when about half way, owing to the big drifts. Several wood teams were also compelled to abandon the trip on the same road, and seek lodgings best they could.
